

Keep it Local with Jim Wolfington

Professional Bio

Jim Wolfington joined Chelsea State Bank as a Vice President in commercial lending in 2007. Now with over 30 years in the industry, he previously worked at Bank of Ann Arbor, National Bank of Detroit (now Chase) and Bank of Galesburg (now First Midwest Bank).

Jim earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from Knox College and his Master of Business Administration in Finance from the University of Iowa.

As a local community banker, Jim is treasurer of Lurie Terrace, an Ann Arbor senior apartment community and serves on the Ann Arbor Community Board of Ele's Place, a not-for-profit organization to support grieving children. Jim is also active in the Ann Arbor Kiwanis Club. He was formerly on the Boards of Directors at Michigan Ability Partners and the Humane Society of Huron Valley. Jim received the 2018 Community Spirit Award from the Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis for his efforts supporting affordable housing in Ann Arbor and Chelsea.
